Letter of Invitation

We're thrilled to extend this exclusive invitation to you on behalf of the World Bank Korea Green Growth Trust Fund (KGGTF). We are hosting the "Green Growth and International Cooperation Forum & Closing Ceremony of the KGGTF Youth Internship Program" on May 21, from 2-5pm. This exceptional event will unfold on the 9th Floor of the Seoul Global Center in Jongro Gu, Seoul.

The World Bank Group KGGTF has been spearheading impactful initiatives to address global challenges and empower the next generation through our grant projects and the transformative KGGTF Youth Internship Program. This program has been instrumental in nurturing future leaders in green growth and offering them work experience in the World Bank.

Throughout the 6-month-long KGGTF Youth Internship Program, participants engaged in lectures and site visits led by World Bank specialists, esteemed K-partners, and distinguished representatives from international organizations. Interns were guided to produce sectoral reports with KGGTF's grant projects as case studies across five pivotal areas: Agriculture and Digital Development, Environment, Water, Urban and Transport, and Energy.

In this culminating event, there will be special lectures on green growth and introductions of international organizations, such as UNDP Seoul Policy Centre, FAO, UNWomen, GGGI, and AFoCO, and CityNet. Also, our interns' sectoral reports will be presented with feedback from international organizations. Your participation will not only enrich the dialogue but also inspire the next generation of leaders in sustainability.

Please confirm your attendance via this link (bit.ly/rsvpKGGTF), so we can ensure ample space for you and your university students. We look forward to welcoming you and your expertise to this landmark event. Your university students will benefit greatly from networking with our interns, meeting international organization representatives, and perhaps even finding inspiration to join our next youth internship program.

We eagerly await your response. Let's inspire and empower the next generation of sustainability leaders together as we chart a course towards a greener, more prosperous future.

Sincerely,

Hyoung Gun Wang
Program Manager
