Leave of/Return from Absence 휴·복학

CHECK Homepage > GSIS Notice for more details.

※ After completing your first semester, it is possible to register online on the Portal (KUPID).

◆ Leave of Absence

○ KUPID → Registration/Graduation → [University Registration] Application for Leave of Absence/Return

○ Students can take off maximum of 2 consecutive semesters at a time and the total numbers cannot exceed 3 semesters.

○ The period of 'Leave of Absence' is included in the term of years for thesis submission.

○ Contact the GSIS Administration Office for the special reasons - such as maternity leave, military leave, etc.

○ International Students taking a leave of absence must leave Korea within 15 days of the date in which their leave of absence is officially approved by the Administration Office. Therefore, you need to prepare your own visa if you keep staying in Korea. When you would like to return to KU GSIS, you should notify the GSIS Administration Office by email and request a new Certificate of Admission (COA) in order to apply for new D-2 visa. If you want to know more information on your visa issue, please check HiKorea website or contact the Immigration Contact Center by calling (+ 82) 1345.

◆ Return from Absence

○ KUPID → Registration/Graduation → [University Registration] Application for Leave of Absence/Return

○ MUST register courses during the Course Registration Period.

○ MUST pay the tuition during the Tuition Payment Period.

○ If you do not register for 'Return from Absence' after the period is expired, you will be expulsed.

Scholarships

GSIS students may pursue scholarships and funds provided under the auspices of the central and local governments as well as the private sector. GSIS also extends partial financial support to students in selective cases to meet costs of extramural intensive academic training and internship programs. In GSIS, many international students will be awarded scholarships (50 to 100 percent of tuition fee) based on their academic performance. In addition, the school also offers a special international scholarship sponsored by other institutions such as POSCO, one of the world's leading steel companies. Korean students, on the other hand, can be granted research/ teaching assistantships or KIEP scholarships awarded through our school's Graduate Program in Area Studies (GPAS). Please contact the admissions officer for details.

General Information

KU GSIS students can choose among five MA programs, i.e. International Commerce, International Development & Cooperation, International Peace & Security, Area Studies, and Korean Studies. Students engage an all-English curriculum that offers a mixture of theoretical frameworks for defining the pressing issues facing firms, cities, nations, regions, and the globe and the practical tools required to formulate policies and strategies to address those issues.

After two years of study, students are being awarded one of the following degrees depending on their choice:

- Master of Arts in International Studies (International Commerce) | 국제학 석사(국제통상)
- Master of Arts in International Studies (International Development and Cooperation) | 국제학 석사(국제개발협력)
- Master of Arts in International Studies (International Peace and Security) | 국제학 석사(국제평화안보)
- Master of Arts in International Studies (East Asian Area) | 국제학 석사(동아시아지역학)
- Master of Arts in International Studies (European Area) | 국제학 석사(유럽지역학)
- Master of Arts in International Studies (Korean Studies) | 국제학 석사(한국학)

Introduction

• International Commerce

This program targets young scholars interested in the field of International Commerce. The miraculous development of Korea can be largely attributed to its success in international business and trade. As such, GSIS has particular expertise in trade and FDI as well as specializing in both macro and micro-approaches to aid young scholars in conducting cutting-edge research. Possible research topics in International Commerce include Multilateral & Regional Trade Relations, Foreign Direct Investment, Strategic Management, and Electronic Commerce.

• International Cooperation

Being the prime example of rapid economic growth and development as well as the world's first recipient-turned-donor country, the Republic of Korea is a leader of development studies as well as a hub for international relations in Asia.
